

FLOODS

Throughout Iowa Are Still Raging.

CITY OF DES MOINES HEAVIEST SUFFERER.

THRILLING RESCUES BY BOAT

Bridges Washed Away and Railway
Traffic is at a Standstill—Rivers are Rising.

Des Moines, Ia., July 10.—The floods in Des Moines and throughout Iowa continue unabated. At 9 o'clock this morning it was announced that within three hours the water works would have to be closed unless the river ceased to rise and another foot would drown out the fires under the boilers at the pumping station. This will close every factory in the city, and leave the town without fire protection.

Though miles of water stretch in three directions as far as the eye can reach, there will be no water for domestic consumption. Hundreds of men are working like beavers improving a levee but they are working against hope as the news from above the city is that the floods are coming in greater force than ever.

The flood situation reached its most alarming state this morning. The Des Moines river was 21 feet above low water at 7 a. m. It is still rising at a rapid rate. The flood is at the highest point since 1851.

Residents of South Des Moines kept an anxious vigil all night long and at 4 o'clock, owing to the breaking of a large section of the levee, were forced to leave.

Many thrilling rescues by boat are reported. Thousands of dollars worth of property were destroyed in 30 minutes in South Des Moines and it is now practically cut off. Four feet of water is rushing through a distance of 20 blocks occupied by residences.

In North Des Moines a wide break in the levee occurred at 8 o'clock and 400 residents were forced to abandon their homes and much of their property.

Similar conditions prevail all over the central section of the state, all the principal rivers being out of their banks. Railway traffic on all the main lines is almost suspended.

Another span of the Great Western bridge at this place went out this morning, the bridge now being almost a total wreck. The Des Moines race track was submerged this morning.

PROVISIONS

OF PROPOSED BILL DISMISSED
BY LEADERS.

Much Opposition Develops to Governor
Nash's Proposition to Appoint
Police Boards.

Put-In-Bay, July 10.—Gov. Nash this morning asked the State Bar Association to appoint a committee of three to assist in drawing the code bill. President Wheeler will name the committee. The bar association contains a large number of opponents of the board plan.

Put-In-Bay, O., July 10.—A long conference was held last night in Governor Nash's apartments by Nash, Attorney General Sheets, Supreme Justice Shauk, Senator Longworth and Wade Ellis. All present were champions of the board plan until Senator Connell was called in. He told Nash that he was not in favor of the governor appointing police boards and would fight any bill which contained that provision.

"We did nothing," said Sheets this morning, "except discuss the provisions of the bill in a general way. The simpler and shorter the bill is, the harder it will be to draw so as to cover the entire question and have the flexibility necessary. I approve of the governor's appointing police boards, although the proposition is meeting with much opposition."

Senator Connell is prominent as a member of the independent faction in the Senate which will hold the key to the situation when the legislature meets.

"It is safe to say," said he this morning, "that no bill providing for control of the police board from Columbus will pass the legislature. I am in favor of the largest measure of home rule consistent with the constitution and that is what the people want and what they will get."

Among the prominent Republicans present whose names have been mentioned are Lieut. Gov. Jones, Judge Marvin, and ex-Senator Sieber of Akron, Representative Price, Harry M. Daugherty and nearly the entire Cleveland crowd, irrespective of party.

FOURTEENTH VICTIM.

Gloversville, N. Y., July 10.—Edward Shull, who was seriously injured in the Mountain Lake wreck July 4, died in the hospital this morning, making the fourteenth victim of the disaster.

SETTLED SUIT

By Marrying the Girl Who Asked $10,000 Damages—She Had Waited
Ten Years for Him.

Springfield, Ill., July 10.—Benjamin F. McAtee, a farmer near Glenarm, disposed of a damage suit pending against him when he came to Springfield yesterday and secured a license to marry Nellie M. Clayton. About two months ago McAtee was made defendant in a $10,000 breach of promise suit filed by Miss Clayton.

McAtee is 51 years old and a grandfather. Miss Clayton is 31 years old. In her suit she charged that McAtee first promised to marry her in 1891 and after waiting for him ten years and refusing several other offers of marriage she decided to bring suit.

PROPERTY LOSS VERY HEAVY.

Whole Block Occupied by the Macintosh Cereal Company Destroyed
Thursday Morning.

Toronto, Ont., July 10.—Seven Toronto firemen were killed in a fire in Macintoshes cereal mills between 6 and 7 o'clock this morning. Russell, 32 years of age; Joseph Collard and Wm. Taggart.

The fire consumed the whole block, occupied by the P. Macintosh cereal warehouse.

Besides list of firemen dead there may be some citizens in the debris but it is impossible at this time to tell. The loss will be many hundreds thousands of dollars.

TREATY

BETWEEN UNITED STATES AND COLOMBIA

Regarding the Panama Canal Will be Signed Within the Next Forty-Eight Hours.

Washington, July 10.—The treaty between the United States and Colombia regarding the construction of the Panama canal was completed and will be signed within the next forty-eight hours. It is learned that in conference yesterday between Secretary Hay and Wm. Nelson Cromwell of the counsel for the new Panama Canal company and special counsel for the Colombian legation an agreement was reached to accept as final the treaty of agreement submitted to Congress last May with a few changes suggested by Secretary Hay. These modifications are all in the interest of the United States, and have been accepted by Mr. Concha, Colombian minister.

FRIARS

Not To Be Recalled In The Time
Set.

VATICAN THUS ANSWERS NOTE
OF GOV. TAFT

REGARDING THE NEGOTIATIONS

Pope Willing That Something Further
Should be Proposed—The School
Question Laid Over.

Rome, July 10.—The answer of the Vatican to the note of Judge Taft, governor of the Philippine islands, concerning religious affairs in the archipelago, which was handed to Cardinal Rampolla, papal secretary of state, July 3, was delivered to Judge Taft at a late hour last night.

The answer is compiled in the order of Judge Taft's note of July 3. First comes the note which says that all the studies of the vatican were centered to render more clear, more precise and definite the conditions between the Holy See and the Philippine government. In fact the note begs that if something further with this intent can be proposed that it be freely expressed, adding it would be considered with great pleasure.

The introduction proceeds in this tone until it comes to the question of the recall of the friars. It then says the vatican cannot accept the proposition to recall the friars within the fixed period. Such recall not being justified by reasons of force, it would be contrary to the rights guaranteed by the treaty of Paris and would put the Holy See in conflict with Spain. It asks:

"If the United States cannot order the withdrawal of the friars, how can the pope do so, especially when it has been proved that all the accusations made against them were partly false, partly exaggerated and partly incorrect. However, the vatican promises that it will try to introduce into the Philippine clergy of other nationalities especially Americans, gradually as they are found ready or are adapted to the purposes."

The note agrees that the friars shall not return to the parishes they left and where their presence could provoke trouble.

The note ends by saying that the pope is willing that the school question in the Philippines be not insisted upon now, but that his holiness hopes his representative in Manila may have an understanding with Judge Taft on this point which is of capital importance in a country almost exclusively Catholic.

The contract which the vatican proposes shall be signed by both parties comprises 12 articles. The first three say the Philippine government is to buy the lands of four religious orders, the Holy See acting as intermediary.

Articles 4 to 7, inclusive, establish a tribunal of arbitrators to be composed of five members, two of whom are to be chosen by the vatican, two by the Philippine government and the fifth member by the other four. The work of the arbitrators to begin January 1, 1903.

The title deeds will be transferred to the Philippine government, payment to be made in Mexican dollars interest during the period of payment accruing at four per cent. Article eight deals with the transfer to the church of ancient crown lands with ecclesiastical buildings on them. The ninth article proposes amicable accord in the matter of the existing charitable or educational trusts which are in dispute. The tenth article provides for the arbitration as to the indemnity the United States shall pay for the ecclesiastical buildings used during the war in the Philippines. The eleventh article says the expenses of the tribunal of arbitrators is to be paid by the Philippine government.

Article 12 declares that the Holy See in the sphere of action which is in its competence, shall use all its influence for the pacification of the Philippine islands and in favor of their adhesion to the established government, and that it shall prevent all political opposition on the part of the clergy, both regular and secular.

Rome, July 10.—The discussion of the Philippine question by the cardinals is becoming so heated that serious differences have arisen. The majority having the matter in charge will not concede to Governor Taft's demand for the complete withdrawal of the friars from the islands. This, it is considered, defeats the Taft commission.

Both Divorced.

Toledo, O., July 10.—In the divorce case of Ada Harriman against John C. Harriman Judge Kinkade granted both a divorce. The court said that members of the same church had sworn to exactly opposite statements so it was impossible to judge as to what were the facts. The Harrimans are prominent socially.

TANK BARGE

Turns Turtle in East River and Over 4000 Barrels of Molasses Lost in the Water.

New York, July 10.—A large tank barge owned by the Tidewater Oil company of Bayonne, N. Y., has turned turtle in the East River opposite the foot of East 30th street. Between 4000 and 5000 barrels of molasses was spread upon the waters of the river. Three men on the boat barely escaped with their lives.

The barge was being filled with molasses from the tank of a West Indian steamer. The engines of the latter had pumped for some time when the large suddenly heaved over on one side and then turned upside down. When the barge began to list the men, who were working on the tanks suspected trouble and jumped overboard. Molasses flowed thickly around them and it was with much difficulty that they reached the side of the steamer, where they were hauled on board. No explanation of the accident has been found.

MANY TILTS

CAUSE OF A TRAGEDY OVER IN INDIANA.

Bradford Fired Two Bullets at His Wife Then Shot Himself and Died

Rising Sun, Ind., July 10.—On Main street last evening, crowded with Sons of War Veterans, who are holding their annual reunion here, and with hundreds of visitors and sightseers, was enacted a tragedy that has already cost one life and which promises to cost still another. It was enacted so quickly that no one could interfere in time to stay the deadly aim of George Bradford, who, after firing twice at his wife, turned his murderous weapon, a .38 calibre revolver, upon himself and died the third shot.

Bradford's aim was true and his wife now suffers from a bullet wound in her shoulder and another in her hip. The latter wound is considered extremely dangerous and her condition is critical.

The wife fell to the pavement, and thinking he had killed her, Bradford placed the muzzle of the revolver in his mouth and pulled the trigger. The ball passed through the junction of the spinal cord with the brain and produced instant death.

The first shot served to engage the attention of the many people on the street at the time and a rush was made by the pedestrians on Bradford who gesticulated wildly as he flourished the smoking revolver, but before any one could stay his hand he had fired again and felled his spouse. As quick as a flash he ended his own existence.

The officers were soon on the scene and took the wounded woman to her home.

The motive of the crime is not known, but neighbors say that the Bradford's have had frequent tilts.

ARREST

Of Three Men Charged With Aiding Tracy.

THE CONVICT IS WITHOUT FOOD AND MONEY.

SEARCH ABOUT RENTON IS OVER.

The Escaped Murderer and Outlaw
Had a Career of Crime in Boston
Before Going West.

Seattle, Wash., July 10.—(Bulletin)—A late report says that there is no truth in the story that Tracy was killed by a posse. He was seen at Green Lake and entered a residence where he used a telephone. The chase was taken up again at day break.

Seattle, Wash., July 10.—While it is reported that Harry Tracy, the escaped bandit, has been killed near here after a hard fight with a posse, there is as yet no verification of the story. It is also said he killed a deputy sheriff and wounded several others.

Tacoma, Wash., July 10.—Convict Tracy has again escaped Sheriff Cuddehe's posse. As telegraphed the Advertiser yesterday, the desperado did this by sprinkling cayenne pepper in his tracks throwing the bloodhounds off the scent and soon after got through the cordon of deputies who were supposed to have him surrounded.

The chief events in the day's search have been partial evidence that Convict Merrill has joined Tracy, the arrest of three men who are believed to have aided Tracy, and the mistaking of an inoffensive man in Madrona Park near Seattle, for the convict.

A dispatch from Orilla states that two men who were positively identified as Tracy and Merrill ate breakfast yesterday at Harthouse, on the Squire farm near that village. A man from the Salem penitentiary gave such an accurate description of the convicts as to make people at Harthouse certain the men who visited there were the outlaws.

A posse left Renton on a special train for Black River Junction. It there divided into three parties, one of which went to Orilla, arriving several hours after the supposed convicts had departed. Merrill is believed to have joined Tracy near Renton Tuesday night. There is reason to believe that he was one of the four men who spent the night with Tracy in Renton.

Yesterday afternoon Deputy Sheriffs arrested Thomas Madden, Philip Ritchie and Andrew Nelson on the charge of aiding Tracy to escape. The authorities claim to have strong evidence to show that these were the men, who, with Merrill, visited Tracy Monday night.

Late in the afternoon word reached the Sheriff's office that a man supposed to be Tracy was acting suspiciously in Madrona Park, east of Seattle. A carload of deputies rushed out and soon surrounded an inoffensive carpenter who was eating his dinner. At their command he held his hands high up in the air, telling them that he was latrine a building in the park and wished to continue. He was released.

The search for Tracy about Renton has been practically abandoned. Sheriff Cuddehe is awaiting another clew as to the convict's whereabouts.

When the first party of deputies surrounded Gerald's house near Renton, Tracy was plainly visible inside. It was an hour and fifteen minutes before the next party of deputies arrived. About this time two Renton men, armed with revolvers, rushed up to the house and inquired if Tracy was within. They received a negative answer, though Tracy was then in the backyard. It is claimed that these men seized the convict away, for he left the house in a few minutes. Officers claim if they had been allowed to quietly surround the house his capture would have been effected.

Before going to the Gerald house, Tracy had cached his provisions and blankets. The pursuit cut him off from the cache, and his supplies were found by the deputies. Tracy is, therefore, without food, and, so far as known, is without money. It is considered certain that he must soon appear at a farm house to demand food

HAD A CAREER OF CRIME.

Boston, July 10.—The Post says: Harry Tracy, the Washington desperado, according to the police of this city is an ex-Boston crook, who went West some 10 or 12 years ago, after serving a sentence for attempted murder. They describe him as a desperate man, who, when in anger, would stop at nothing brutal, be the object of his hate man or woman.

Tracy's hangout when here was in the old Tenderloin, where he was known as the lover of a noted pick-pocket and badger worker, long since dead. He did not confine himself to this line, however, for when business was dull the police say he would tackle housebreaking or holdups. But he was a hard man to catch, escaping conviction a score of times.

His one conviction was due to his being caught redhanded. Each time he was arrested he gave a hard battle, but at that time he had not seemingly acquired the skill with fire arms he now possesses. He would shoot, but preferred the use of the knife.

It is recalled that during his last years here no officer went at him single handed. However, he was a brash crafty fellow then and most of his jobs were marked by boldness and careful planning.

To show his brutality, it is related of him that on one occasion he visited a place with a woman. A man in the place looked at her a bit too sharply and Tracy nearly killed him. A woman inmate begged him to spare the man's life and he broke her skull with a bottle, then, resuming his attack upon the unfortunate who had aroused his ire, beat him so badly that he never fully recovered.

Then with a threat of killing every one in the house if they told the police on him, he departed. Merrill, his partner is also well known here.

REFUSAL

Of Railroads Has Angered The Strikers.

PEACEABLE SETTLEMENT IS NOT NOW IN SIGHT.

THE FIRST SYMPATHETIC MOVE

On Part of the Teamsters Occurred on Thursday When 500 Refused to Haul Certain Freight.

Chicago, July 10.—Meetings of the local unions of freight handlers were held this morning resulting in many instances in the men rejecting the terms offered by the railroads. While the companies agree not to discriminate against the union men, they refuse to recognize their organization or to grant the demands for a greater increase than was offered in the first proposals to compromise. This refusal has angered the strikers. A majority of them urge retaliatory measures and the intemperate spirits are working the men up to a pitch that does not augur well for a peaceable settlement.

Quite a number of the freight handlers returned to work this morning, being dissatisfied with the manner in which the negotiations were being conducted.

The first big sympathetic move on the part of the teamsters occurred this morning when 500 of them refused to haul away from the Burlington depot, any freight handled by renton men.

Michael Leom was burned all over the body and will die. Of eight others, four are very seriously burned.

Registered physicians in Massachusetts are said to number about 4500, an average of one to every 625 inhabitants.

LOVE

For Girl At Chillicothe Caused Suicide.

ETHEL TRAFTON, AGED FIFTEEN,
REFUSED HIM.

THREATENED TO MURDER HER.

Warren D. Gettle, a Young Electrician
Drowned Himself by Jumping
From a Boat.

Chicago, Ill., July 10.—After seeking for longer than two weeks a solution of the mystery of the disappearance of Warren D. Gettle, the 24 year old electrician employed by the Manufacturers' Appraisal company, of this city the police have decided that he leaped from the steamer City of Racine, June 22, and that he ended his life because a 15 year old girl in Chillicothe, Ohio, would not marry him.

The romance of Gettle's life, beginning in Chillicothe after the young man left college and ending in Lake Michigan, was revealed when Marshal Val Southworth of the Ohio town, called at the Central Police station.

He said Gettle had been in love with Ethel Trafton and that recently he had written her a letter which said that he would kill her and himself if she refused to return his affections.

Gettle's family is prominent in Chillicothe and before coming to Chicago the young man was a social leader there. Gettle and the girl were often seen together, but no one suspected a love affair existed. The young man had set his heart on making the girl his wife. She was fond of him, but did not return his affections. Soon after declaring his love Gettle came to Chicago. He was an expert electrician and soon secured a responsible position. Few persons, it is said, knew of his heart's trouble. His manner was usually cheerful his friends say, but at times he was plainly melancholy. He never mentioned the name of his child sweetheart.

When Gettle wrote the letter to the girl in which he threatened to take his life, he was in Milwaukee inspecting the electrical plant of the American Shipbuilding Company. He completed his work June 21, and that evening took passage on the City of Racine for Chicago. He appeared to be in good spirits it is said, and formed the acquaintance of three young men, promising to meet them in the morning. They left Gettle on deck when they retired at midnight.

At 2 a. m., John Hammer, 327 Orchard street, saw a man standing in the bow of the boat. He was poised on the rail as if prepared to jump overboard. On seeing Hammer the man changed his position. Supposing him to be one of the crew, Hammer says he returned to his berth. A moment later he heard a splash. He ran to the deck, but the man had disappeared.

The steamer searched the vicinity for an hour without finding the body. Gettle's berth had not been occupied and a search disclosed that he was not on the vessel. When the steamer reached Chicago the police of the Central station were notified and detectives were detailed to make an investigation. When news of Gettle's disappearance reached Chillicothe a search for clues was made and finally the letter was found which told of the young man's unrequited love and of his intention to commit suicide.

DECLINES TO YIELD TO PRESIDENT.

Oyster Bay, July 10.—Dr. W. C. Root, the village dentist, has refused to turn over his office in the bank building to President Roosevelt. His office occupies two-thirds and the president's office one-third of the second story. The doctor says he would let the President have the rooms every day but Wednesday for a good stiff price, but this was not satisfactory. The presidential official force is much cramped in consequence.

A GREAT SHAM

Is All This Anti-Trust Talk by President Roosevelt and Republican Leaders, Now That Congress Has Adjourned,

The Republican newspapers are now publishing with a real flourish of trumpets that some legislation against trusts is going to be enacted at the short session of Congress next winter. President Roosevelt made a loud profession of favoring such a measure in his Fourth of July oration at Pittsburg, and this has been paraded with much noise by the Republican newspapers.

"A bill has been prepared," say these Republican newspapers, "and Congressman Littlefield, of Maine, has been selected by President Roosevelt to conduct his anti-trust fight next session."

This is about the most apparent, in fact brazen sham, that has lately been attempted to be perpetrated on the American people.

If there is any sincerity in this anti-trust profession on the part of Roosevelt and certain Republican leaders, why is it that the whole of the last long session of Congress was frittered away without doing anything, or even attempting to do anything, against the trusts? Every American citizen of ordinary intelligence knows that there is no possible chance for legislation of this character to be enacted at the short session of Congress. There is no danger that trusts will have any fear of any laws being passed detrimental to their interests at the next session, when they have a score of lawyers in the Senate who can filibuster and consume all the session's time in talking all such measures to death.

There is no sincerity in this profession of either Roosevelt or any Republican leader, for the reason that the trust magnates of the country, the men who have inspired trusts, who hold them to be legal and legitimate exercises of the money power, and who are now furthering and promoting them, are the men who give law to the Republican party, invent its policies and declare its action. They determine its candidates and will have more to do with the nomination of the next Republican candidate for president than any other of the great interests ruling the business of the country, and determining its political action.

There were efficient measures proposed at the late Congress to curb or cure the domination of the trusts, but they were sidetracked by the Republican party with the approval and aid of the President. This was the case particularly with the several bills introduced dissolving the tariff partnership between the trusts and the Republican party, by repealing or reducing the duties on trust products sold cheaper abroad than to American consumers. This was first suggested as a remedy years ago, when the trusts first began to show their power, by John Sherman, the unquestioned leader of the Republican party on all economic and revenue questions. It was renewed in a number of bills presented at the late session by Democratic members, but the House committees refused to report them even for consideration. The people were denied a hearing. This action was approved by President Roosevelt and his party, and there is no question that the trusts dictated the action.

If President Roosevelt had been sincere in his opposition to trust power and usurpation this was the time he should have shown 'his hand' in a 'strenuous' way, but he carefully refrained from doing so and applying the short, sharp and decisive remedy of breaking the partnership between the trusts and the Republican party. Therefore the people have little or no confidence in the anti-trust crusade alleged to be under consideration at Oyster Bay. The trusts command the situation and there is no chance for effective relief from the Republican President or Republican Congress. All the trusts have to do is to threaten to shut off the supplies for political purposes in the next presidential campaign, a matter which the President has very much at heart. No doubt there will be a vigorous beating of tom-toms and "strenuous" words from the President, but there it will end. It is a game of deception and humbug. The President could not if he would and he would not if he could.

FAMOUS SUIT

Which Has Been Pending for Years
Settled So Far as These Newark Men are Concerned.

F. M. Black, Judge Charles Follett and son, Charles H. Follett, have just returned from Cleveland, after having adjusted and settled the noted legal coal land case of Larwill vs. Burke et al. Mr. Follett informed an Advocate reporter Thursday that all matters were amicably adjusted between the parties, and the judgments of the lower courts were fully paid and adjusted to the satisfaction of all parties.

Thus is settled a very noted case that involved a large tract of coal lands in southern Ohio, which was originally optioned and controlled by a syndicate of Newark citizens embracing such men as W. D. Lee, James L. Birkey, H. M. Wyeth, S. B. Woolson, Thomas H. Sites and others.

These gentlemen secured an option upon 5618 acres of land in the counties of Athens, Hocking and Perry and then after securing the same, took in to their syndicate certain Cleveland parties, including Judge Burke and Charles Hickox, the defendants in the case. After taking in the gentlemen named a company was formed called the Snow Fork and Cleveland Coal Co., and after the company was formed Burke, the president, and Hickox, the secretary and treasurer, were appointed a committee to sell the lands at the best possible price. This was in 1876.

In 1877 Burke and Hickox, as such officers and committee, reported that they had sold the lands to the Hocking Coal and Railway company at an agreed price of $150 per acre. The Columbus and Hocking Valley, the Columbus and Toledo railroads and the Ohio and Western railroad were then organized into one system, called the Columbus, Hocking Valley and Toledo railroad, in which deal was included these coal lands. The suit just settled was an action brought by the minority stock holders of the Snow Fork and Cleveland Coal company against Burke and Hickox, as such officers and committee for their share of the lands on a basis of $150 per acre. This the lower courts granted and the Supreme court affirmed the same, and the case was settled on this basis.

This made a very successful issue on the part of Lee and Hull and the attorneys engaged in the case. Mr. Hull received about $22,000, the Bosley estate about $15,000 and W. D. Lee about $36,000, including the attorney fees in the case, which bring to Follett & Son about $18,000 to F. M. Black $1,200 to $1,500, and to the Cleveland attorneys their proportion.

Cincinnati, July 10.—It is reported that 1,800 conductors and motormen of the Cincinnati Traction company will strike at 5:30 this afternoon. They want shorter hours and time for meals.

NEW AUTOMOBILE.

A Carriage Which Condenses Its Own Steam.

A new style of steam automobile has just appeared and is attracting considerable attention among those who favor the steam machine, says the New York Tribune. The vehicle in question condenses its own steam and, according to the makers, will travel a hundred miles on six gallons of water.

It is one of the first steam machines built on the lines of the foreign gasoline carriages. The makers have also tried to get as far away as possible from the shaftless style. The machine is arranged for carrying six persons.

Oldest Man Dead.

Knoxville, Tenn., July 10.—Ferdinand Cheney, the oldest man in Tennessee and probably the oldest in the United States, died at his home on the summit of Copper Ridge on July 4th at the age of 128 years the day of his death being his birthday. Cheney was born in Virginia July 4, 1776. When 12 years old he saw George Washington.

Prayer Aided Her.

St. Paul, Minn., July 10.—Ellen M. Stone, the missionary, held captive by Bulgarian brigands so many months and who was finally ransomed by money subscribed in the United States was one of the speakers at Wednesday's session of the Luther League. Miss Stone asserted that she owed her deliverance to prayer and said that prayer did more in securing her freedom than the money aid to her captors.

Many Overcome.

Paris, July 10.—During the manoeuvres of the 108th infantry at Bergerac today, 320 of the men were overcome by sunstroke. The manoeuvres were stopped. Three of the men are dead and others are in a serious condition.

OUTVILLE.

Miss Edith Alward of Columbus is visiting Mr. S. V. Remy's family.

The ladies aid society met at the home of Mrs. B. M. Hall last Wednesday. At this meeting Mrs. E. P. Rugg was chosen president for the coming year.

The Boxwell commencement was a success in every way. Each of the eight graduates spoke their recitations exceedingly well. The address by Prof. C. L. Williams was well received. Dr. F. P. Letherman, president of the board, delivered the certificates with appropriate address. The solos by Miss Condit were enjoyed by all and the Misses Edna and Lena Rugg, soloists, with Miss Florence Legg as organist, and Mr. Lee Price as violinist, are to be largely complimented for the most excellent music they furnished.

With the improvements now going on, our town presents an appearance that few of its size can rival.

Misses Murrel Morrow and Blanche Legg visited relatives in Dennison, O., last week.

Mrs. George DeWolf and children visited relatives in Wheeling last week.

Messrs. John Camp and F. B. Carter were in Cincinnati last week.

Mrs. B. C. Bell's father, Mr. D. H. Corry of Oberlin, and her sister, Mrs. Langworthy of Grafton, spent several days here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Hall visited relatives in Zanesville a few days last week.

Guthrie, O. T., July 10.—A sheriff's posse is searching for evidence to identify four persons whose bodies were found terribly mutilated yesterday near Prudence in Western Oklahoma. It is reported that they were a party of movers from Kentucky, but as the bodies are nude they have not been identified. The bodies are those of a man, woman and two children, apparently members of one family.

A New Back for an Old One—How It Is Done in Newark

The back aches at times with a dull, indescribable feeling, making you weary and restless; piercing pains shoot across the region of the kidneys, and again the loins are so lame to stoop is agony. No use to rub or apply plaster to the back in this condition. You cannot reach the cause. Exchange the bad back for a new and stronger one. Follow the example of this Newark citizen.

Mr. G. B. Myers, 30 South Front street, freight conductor B. & O. says: "I had a pain across the small of my back for four or five years. It was such a constant ache that I had little chance to forget it. I went to Crayton's drug store and got Doan's Kidney Pills. This was not the first medicine I had used in trying to get rid of my trouble, but I can say that it is the first that ever gave me quick and lasting relief, for the backache entirely disappeared."

Lives of Striking Miners

[Special Correspondence.]

Wilkesbarre, Pa., July 7.—In times of peace and prosperity the conditions of life among the miners in the anthracite coalfields, of which this city is the center, are very much the same as those prevailing elsewhere in the ordinary industrial walks of life. There are prosperous and well-to-do miners and impecunious and ne'er do well miners and miners of all grades between the two extremes.

It is a mistake to suppose, as many do who are unacquainted with the conditions here, that coal miners or any considerable proportion of them are inferior citizens in any respect. As a class the native born American miners in Wilkesbarre and other communities in the coal belt are as highly respected as any other class of citizens. Many of them own their own homes, and not a few have a competency in the shape of real estate, securities or bank balances. Their families are not less highly respected than those of other men. Their sons and daughters are among the prominent people of the community; they are among the most cultured of local musicians, the peers of any as members of the local bar, are shining in the journalistic world in many cities and are eloquent pulpit orators.

The picture so frequently drawn in the newspapers of the "typical miner's family," showing frowzy women and dirty, ragged children seated upon the sides of culm dumps, is a caricature which the average miner indignantly resents. While there are some families of this kind in the region, they are the exception. I speak now of the American miner and not the foreigner, who is usually a laborer or helper around the mines. The average anthracite miner's home, if frequently small and inexpensively furnished, is pretty apt to be neat and clean. Flower boxes bloom about the door, and summer breezes rustle the vines that cling about the windows, while usually a well kept garden furnishes a good part of the family living during a portion of the year. Inside the house there are as many evidences of intelligence and refinement as you will find in the home of the average industrial and frugal mechanic or artisan. There are books and magazines and newspapers and probably a piano or an organ. Quite likely the miner's daughter sings in the same church choir as the daughter of the rich banker or merchant.

Whether the miner be prosperous or otherwise, a great and prolonged strike is a heavy burden, albeit a burden which he accepts with the hope of bettering his condition. If the miner has been thrifty and laid aside something to meet such an emergency, he will weather the storm without great distress if the strike does not last too long. If he has not been frugal and saving, he and his family will be likely to feel the pinch of poverty severely before the struggle is over.

As the present strike has long been contemplated from various standpoints and did not come upon them suddenly, the miners had time to get themselves pretty well prepared for a tieup of considerable duration. There has thus far been comparatively little suffering in this region, though naturally the miners are obliged to practice rigid economy. However, some apprehension for the future is felt. The miners' wives, upon whom the heaviest of the burden falls, show in their careworn faces the anxiety they feel over the question of filling the family larder.

The fact that many of the miners have secured temporary employment elsewhere, is lightening conditions. Yet if the strike is continued until autumn the families of the most frugal of the miners will be reduced to want. It is this thought that is causing a cloud on the happiness of many homes not yet materially affected. This is the fear that caused the wife of the well-to-do miner to guard her expense account with jealous eye, to refuse to make expenditures that in previous years she deemed absolutely necessary.

It is not the miners proper nor their dependents who suffer most keenly, at least so far as the question of subsistence goes, from the effects of a long continued coal strike. It is the Poles, Hungarians, Italians and Slavs, who are not, except in few instances, miners according to the local definition of the term. They work about the mines, inside and out, as laborers and helpers at wages very much inferior to those paid the miners, from which it is quite impossible for them to save much if anything even if they were inclined to do so, which as a rule they are not. When the miners lay down their picks, these laborers, which form a large proportion of the working force of a mine, are necessarily thrown out of employment and are ill prepared for the shutdown. They have nothing put by for their future, and want and hunger soon come upon them. They live in the worst habitations that the regions afford, large families of them accumulating in small rooms, many in a house. Their condition even during prosperous times is sufficient to arouse commiseration. Most of the members of these families cannot speak English, and the people who seek to succor them are made to understand their wants with difficulty through some adroit headed interpreter.

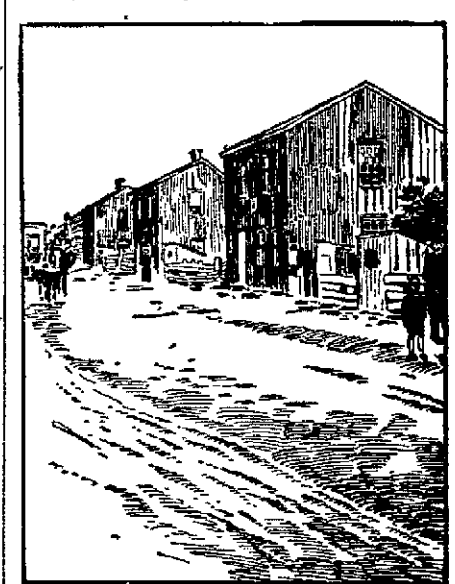

The Slavonic tribes and the Magyar Hungarians as a general rule live in the same settlement. The Italians live by themselves. All are in abject poverty, living in rude shanties which they have thrown together upon the companies' lands. If there is any difference in the degree of poverty, the condition of the Italian mine laborer is the more pitiable.

One of the most notable of these Italian settlements is near Latimer, near where the shocking tragedy occurred in the last great strike. The principal mine in that direction is the Pardee mine. The mine laborers have made homes for themselves back of the mine. They built their wooden huts at the edge of the culm bank of such timber as they could find discarded from tunnel shores or lying unclaimed along the road.

The streets are not streets, but little, narrow alleys. It would be impossible to drive a horse and wagon through them. The houses are all one story high and of the most primitive construction. A respectable farmer of Pennsylvania would hesitate before intrusting his hogs to them.

In nearly every one of the homes of the Italian miners there is a family of at least five children. That is the average, and many of these sheds shelter as many as twelve children.

The crowning glory of the Italian village is its goats. The milk makes one of the principal forms of diet of the children. That and black bread is about all they get.

The homes of the Huns and Slavs are very much like those of the Italians in construction and surroundings, though somewhat more cleanly and comfortable. The houses are only one story high, built of lumber discarded from the mines. The roofs are shingled, though usually leaky in places and re-enforced with strips of sheet iron, also from the mines. Behind the houses are straggling little gardens planted with potatoes, corn and beans. In front of one house I saw a dove-cote built on a tall post and painted yellow, red and blue, the favorite colors of the Hungarian race. It presented a marked contrast to the unpainted home of the human beings beneath it.

Hard as is the lot of the American miner in the anthracite field during a prolonged shutdown, it is not to be compared to the suffering and distress of the foreign element in the coal belt, whose condition at best is one of poverty and squalor.

BUCKEYE LAKE PEOPLE

Expected to Acquire the Newark City Lines and the Newark and Granville Electric Railroad Friday--Newark To Be Quite an Interurban Center.

James R. Fitzgibbon, local legal representative of the Buckeye Lake road, Wednesday received a letter from the legal firm of Gaston, Snow & Saltonstall, of Boston, representing the Tucker-Anthony syndicate, saying that their clients were ready to take possession of the Newark & Granville and the Newark city electric lines.

No date was named in the letter, but Mr. Fitzgibbon says that Friday, July 11th, is the probable date.

The transaction will not necessitate any change in the management of the newly-acquired road. Considerable improvement will be made both in the Newark city system and the Newark-Granville interurban.

The Columbus, Newark and Zanesville Interurban company, which was organized recently in Columbus, will before long operate a road between Zanesville and Newark connecting with Columbus by the Buckeye Lake road and Newark will become quite an interurban center.

When Secretary G. S. Shinnick was seen by the Advocate Thursday morning he said that he could not tell at this time what changes if any, the transfer of the property would involve.

Mr. S. Priest, who is a member of the surveying party now engaged in surveying the route east of this city for the Columbus, Buckeye Lake and Newark Traction railway, was in the city Thursday and said that the work of surveying has progressed about nine miles, to a point about one mile.

MISS PERRY

Purchased a Ticket for London, England, It is Said--Left Columbus on June 13.

Columbus, O., July 10--There has been much speculation and uneasiness over the whereabouts of Miss Maude Perry who on June 30 left town presumably for Lancaster, but who has been since then missing.

John G. Grossman, a steamship agent has identified a photograph of Miss Perry as that of a woman who purchased a ticket of him for London, England. It is believed she has received financial assistance from some one outside the family to make the trip. A New York traveling man became rather infatuated with Miss Perry when she was employed at the Beall dry good store. Miss Perry purchased the steamship ticket under the name of Mrs. H. H. Baker.

M., and the remainder of his estate to his cousin, Miss Maggie Sturgeon. The will says: "Miss Sturgeon has long had charge of my house and cared for me and for my parents. She well deserves all I have given her; same to be hers and heirs' forever." The estate is valued at $200,000.

this side of the canal coal field on Flint Ridge. Mr. Edward Savage is the engineer having charge of the work, and Robert E. Baker of this city is his assistant.

Columbus, O., July 10--The formal transfer of the Newark & Granville Electric railway will be made to the Columbus, Buckeye Lake and Newark Traction company tomorrow.

Mr. Arthur E. Appleyard, at the head of the Appleyard syndicate, was in Columbus Wednesday in consultation with the local officials of the Buckeye Lake road, and made the announcement above stated. The officials of the road inspected the Newark & Granville system some weeks ago, and the result of this inspection was reported to Boston and other Eastern capitalists interested, and after looking up the franchises and grants under which the road was being operated, it was decided to make the purchase.

The Newark & Granville road will become the property of the Buckeye Lake road, accordingly, on next Friday. The change will not necessitate any change at the present in the operation of the newly acquired property, and it will still continue under the present management.

It is understood that the road is to be improved to some extent, and Mr. Appleyard's presence in the city on Wednesday was for the purpose of conferring with local officials of the syndicate preparatory to making needed improvements.

JIM'S BABY

Will go to College All Right Enough, But the Time is Not as Yet Quite Ripe.

Mr. and Mrs. James K. Hamill's young son is just five months old, but already he has caused some stir in educational circles, and if his collegiate career does not include a course in one of the best universities in America it will not be the fault of these institutions.

When the young man was born last February a friend of the father, notified several of the institutions of learning that Mr. Hamill had a son whom he expected to send to college.

Since that time every mail has brought its share of prospectuses, catalogues and announcements, of various schools. The climax, however, was reached Wednesday when a representative of Kenyon College, at Gambier, called at the Hamill home in person to arrange for the young man's proper education.

He found Mr. Hamill senior, holding his son and heir on his knee, vainly striving to amuse him with some glittering bauble.

The college man asked about the prospective student son, and soon explanations were in order, which were mutually given and thoroughly enjoyed.

SCHWAB'S PALACE

Will be One of the Show Places of America--Place is to Cost Much Money.

New York, July 10--Charles M. Schwab, President of the Steel Trust, intends that his new home on the block bounded by Riverside drive, West End avenue, Seventy-third and Seventy-fourth streets shall be the finest residence in New York and one of the show places of the world.

A score of workmen are now digging the excavation for the mansion, and several hundred workmen will be employed within a few days. The house is to cost $2,500,000, and the site was bought by Mr. Schwab a year ago for $865,000. The ground will be terraced, and a wall, surmounted by wrought-iron railing, will encompass the premises. In front of the house a beautiful fountain is to be erected, and the driveway will circle around it.

The mansion, which will be 100 by 150 feet, with two wings extending to rear and four stories in height, will be reached by broad stone steps, which will lead up the terraces to the front entrance. In the center of the house will be a magnificent hallway and stairway of marble and onyx.

REMARKABLE

CURE EFFECTED BY USE OF NEW DISCOVERY MEDICINE

Which Should be Read by All Mothers in Newark—Sales Room at 54 West Church.

Cooper's New Discovery Medicine is rapidly becoming all the rage in Newark, and when the Doctor and his company of ten colored artists opened their open air entertainment on the vacant lot adjoining the Brunswick bowling alleys last night, an immense concourse of people that completely filled the lot and extended clear out to the street, threatening to block the street car traffic, and gathered to listen to the entertainment and to purchase the wonderful medicine that the Doctor is introducing. The demand for the New Discovery Medicine last night was phenomenal, and an immense quantity was sold. The entertainment given by the colored people was up to date, and served to keep the crowd in good humor. The Doctor is rapidly winning the confidence of the people of Newark, and the fact that he has determined to remain in Newark for some time, in order to give relief to the afflicted, has served to strengthen this confidence both in the Doctor and his wonderful medicine.

Down in Zanesville the people are talking of the wonderful cure the New Discovery medicine has effected in the case of Mabel, the little ten year old daughter of Mr. Milton E. Denny, the prosperous agent for the Prudential Insurance company, who resides at 325 Ridge avenue that city, in purging from her system hundreds of stomach worms, and restoring her to complete health and happiness.

In describing the actions of the little one before she had been relieved, Mrs. Denny said: "She was growing punier every day and very nervous. In her sleep she would pick and tear at her nostrils, gnashing her teeth and tossing about. Sometimes she would scream, at others talk and we felt so sorry for her."

"Finally we concluded she was troubled with worms and began giving her vermifuges and powders that are said to grind the worms to bits before expelling them. I watched carefully for relief but it never came. Then Dr. Cooper arrived and I began reading of the marvelous cures his medicine was making. Then I

Attorney Charles W. Miller, secretary, will soon establish headquarters from which all information will be given out, and the management will emanate.

The principal feature of the week will be the exhibition of the Boston Ferrari Carnival company, the same in every feature as it exhibited at the Chicago World's Fair in '93, the mid-winter carnival in San Francisco, Atlanta Exposition, Nashville Centennial, Omaha Exposition and the Pan-American in Buffalo last year.

There are ten different and distinct exhibitions, including the famous wild animal show, the best in existence.

The Bostock exhibition will be on First street, and there will be no "hootchie kootchie" or anything to offend the most sensitive taste.

Other attractions which have been secured will be announced later.

heard his lecture in which he described Edith's actions as minutely as if he had seen her in her sleep, that I bought a bottle, giving her just three doses in as many hours when there passed from her system a perfect mass of nasty, wriggling, knotting stomach worms about the shape of a good sized needle.

"Since then we notice a wonderful improvement in her, she sleeps soundly, breathes regularly, eats finely and the gritting of teeth and picking at her nose is over."

How many Zanesville mothers have noticed these same symptoms in their beloved little ones, boys and girls?

And how many parents knowing that a safe, sure and speedy cure for these infantile pests can be had at the insignificant outlay of a paltry dollar would pass this last opportunity by without accepting it and putting an end to the sufferings of their darlings?"

In order to accommodate persons desiring this wonderful medicine, Dr. Cooper has opened a sales room at 54 West Church street, in the house occupied by M. B. Melix. He has secured the two front parlors of the house, where he can be found at all hours of the day.

FIRE

Cannot Burn Your Food When Cooked in "Gem" Aluminum Kettle

Read testimonial from Gus Atherton, of the Harvey Cafe:

Newark, O., July 9, 1902.

This is to certify that I have witnessed a thorough and most satisfactory test of the "Gem Aluminum Kettle." The aluminum and an enameled vessel each containing a pint of tomatoes were placed on a gas stove with the same amount of heat, and in the same length of time the tomatoes were cooked to dryness. At this point the tomatoes in the aluminum kettle showed no signs of burning or sticking, while in the enamel vessel they were stuck all over the bottom and burned into a charred mass, and it was impossible to clean the vessel. Then to test the aluminum kettle still further we left the tomatoes char into a black mass such as no enamel vessel could stand. After this awful burning the aluminum kettle was easily cleaned, leaving it bright and pretty as new. I consider it by far the best and most complete thing of the kind I have ever seen and would certainly advise every practical housekeeper to get one. Very respectfully,

GUS ATHERTON.

CROP BULLETIN

Corn—Shows a Decided Improvement—Potatoes Fair to Good—Rains Delay Harvesting.

The following is the climate and crop bulletin of the Weather bureau, Ohio section, for the week ending July 7:

Light to moderate rains have been general during the week except in some few eastern districts, where heavy and copious showers have caused much damage. High temperatures prevailed during the latter part of the week.

Wheat harvesting has advanced satisfactorily and in the central and southern counties is nearly completed. In some central northern counties harvesting has been delayed by wet weather, while in the southwestern part of the state threshing has commenced.

Generally throughout the state the corn crop has shown a decided improvement, except in the central northern counties where the rains of the past week have damaged the crop and retarded its growth.

Improvement is shown in the condition of oats throughout the greater portion of the state and in the central and southwestern counties the crop is heading. Several correspondents report some fields lodged.

The potato crop averages from fair to good in nearly all sections of the state except in some counties where they are reported as rotting in the ground. A decided improvement is noted in pastures and gardens. Correspondents continue to report the dropping of apples. Pears and plums are in fair condition, but the peaches are below the average. Hay making has been retarded by the wet weather, and some clover is reported decaying. Tobacco is doing nicely, but in some sections has been badly washed.

The London Court of Appeals is all upset over a trial in which a Pruney supposed to be the remains of a Princess of Peru, plays the principal role.

THE CLUMSY MAN.

You Can Never Be Sure of What His Next Break Will Be.

The great virtue of the really clumsy man is that he never exhausts his capabilities. When you think that the bedrock is reached, there is still a lower depth. If a detrimental relative should exist, the clumsy man asks after his health with great particularity and will not be satisfied until he receives a full and detailed reply. Should there be any incident in your past which everybody has generously agreed to forget it is the clumsy man who seizes the one, the inevitable opportunity, when the club is at its fullest and says loudly: "Somebody was talking the other day about that unfortunate little affair of yours in '95. Now tell me!"

When on meeting him you say casually and with no desire for information, "How are you?" he insists on giving you complete data, and he is as full of small complaints as a refractory pauper. It is only fair to add that he will ask affectionately after the colds of yesterday, and his favorite locale for this is at the corner of a drafty street. He might be subsidized by influenza or he might get a commission on sore throats from his eagerness to pin you into the most dangerous position that can be discovered.

One desires an adequate amount of sympathy in distress, but our man always goes a little beyond this point. You are growing thin, and he says that you are wasting away to a shadow. You are growing stout, and he tells an amusing anecdote about apoplexy. He can be more critical than a hair-dresser if occasion gives the least excuse.—Philadelphia Ledger.

A Sioux City woman refused the demand of her husband that she cut off her hair, don man's apparel and beat her way to Seattle with him in a box car.

THE RAILWAYS

BOILER WASHER GEO. MERCER HURT IN ROUNDHOUSE.

Italian Instantly Killed—Peter Kelly Injured—Assimilation of Recent B. & O. Purchases.

George J. Mercer, a boiler washer employed in the B. & O. roundhouse, was the victim of a serious and painful accident this morning. Shortly after 10 o'clock he received a hurry order to wash engine 828, which was standing on the passenger engine side of the roundhouse. He secured Joseph McRony as an assistant and began work on the engine at once, as it was thought it might be needed for 103. They had worked but a short time and were engaged in unscrewing the plug, when Mercer made the remark that he believed there was steam in the engine. The words had hardly been uttered when the partly loosened plug blew out, and a stream of steam and mud blew out, striking Mr. Mercer in the face and breast, completely enveloping him in the dirty fluid.

Dr. D. M. Smith was sent for, and quickly attended to the injured man's hurts, after which he was taken to his home, 467 Baltimore street, where he has a wife and two little sons.

His injuries are quite serious, and his eyes are both badly burned, although it is not thought that he will suffer any permanent disablement. Mr. Mercer has been very unfortunate. On the 14th of May he had one of his eyes badly injured by a piece of brass flying finding lodgment in it, and did not recover from the effects of that injury until the 23rd of June.

Man Instantly Killed.

An Italian, whose name is unknown, who has been working on the B. & O. as a track laborer, was instantly killed at Castle's, on the C. O. division of the road on Wednesday. He was engaged at work when the camp train backed on him, throwing him beneath the wheels and crushing him to death.

Two Ribs Broken.

Peter Kelly, who has been working in the B. & O. roundhouse for a short time only, was the victim of a very painful and serious accident Thursday morning. He was working on a dead engine, trying to get it out of the round house when he was caught between the engine and tank, and badly crushed. Two of his ribs were broken and he was otherwise bruised and cut. He was removed to the office of Dr. Priest, the B. & O. medical examiner, where his injuries were promptly and efficiently attended to. The injured man's home is in Pittsburgh and his friends have been communicated with.

Assimilation by B. & O.

"The Baltimore & Ohio is just now completing the assimilation of the recently purchased lines," says the Cleveland Leader, "and by the new devices is making it easier work for the passenger men. Incidentally, some of the significance of recent purchases, the O. & L. K. among others, is coming out. In respect to the former clause it was announced through a circular there, all tickets held for the case of connecting lines of the Cleveland, Lorain & Wheeling, the Cleveland Terminal & Valley, and the Pittsburgh and Western issue, are to be sent in to the general offices of the B. & O. and that hereafter it will be necessary to use but one coupon over any of those lines when the passenger is destined to any point on the B. & O. This announcement establishes the unity of all of the B. & O. possessions.

"At the same time it was demonstrated that for the time being there is no intention of absorbing the B. & O. S.-W. into the present company. As evidence of it, the line between Midland City and Columbus, which has always been operated by the B. & O., has been turned over to the B. & O. S.-W. for operation. This will give the latter road a line of its own into Columbus and completes the connection between Cincinnati and Columbus under a single track system, whereas a trackage right has heretofore been necessary. Coincident with this announcement came another that the line between Belpre and Marietta, formerly operated by the B. & O. S.-W. has been turned over to the parent company. In connection with the Ohio & Little Kanawha this completes the line of the Baltimore & Ohio between Zanesville and Parkersburg, and therefore, meets the eastern system with the West Virginia lines of the Royal Blue route. The connecting up of this route seems to be in preparation for the fight with the Wabash for the possession of that territory, as the Goulds evidently have designs upon just such a line as the B. & O. has now completed."

Penn and Western Union.

Philadelphia, Pa., July 10.—Injunction proceedings will probably be begun by the Western Union against the Postal Telegraph and Pennsylvania railroad company. The necessary papers have been prepared. This trouble has been brought about by clashes between henchmen of the two companies, which began at Paxon, N. J., and which have been continued elsewhere, and due to the Pennsylvania's transfer of the wires and business to the Postal company. An officer of the Pennsylvania said today that all Western Union passes had been taken up and that the railroad now paid cash for every message sent over Western Union wires.

WILL SUE STILES

Father of Little Nora Ferris Will Bring Action Against Superintendent at Delaware.

Columbus, July 10.—There is no longer any doubt that the death of Nora Ferris at the Delaware Girls' industrial school in November will be made the subject of judicial examination. While as yet Attorney General Sheets has taken no action in reference to a criminal prosecution, the father of the dead girl, Benjamin Ferris of Coalton, Jackson county, has employed an attorney and will probe the death of his daughter to the bottom.

Mr. Ferris and his attorney, J. H. McGhee of Jackson, were in Columbus yesterday and spent hours in examining the report of the investigation committee, on file in the office of the governor.

Mr. Ferris said that while he expected to leave the criminal prosecution to the attorney general, he would on his own behalf file two damage suits. One will be against Miss Sellers, the matron of the cottage in which Nora died, she being the woman who, it is alleged, tied the girl in a straight jacket to the bars of the cell. This suit will be for damages for loss of Nora's service during her minority. The other suit is to be commenced against Superintendent Stiles and his bondsmen.

The amount of damages to be asked has not yet been settled upon. One of the most prominent attorneys of the State has been retained in the cases, and the management of the school will be tried to the bottom when they are sifted. As Miss Sellers is in Chicago and refuses to return to Ohio it is probable that the suit against her will be filed in the United States court.

A UNIQUE DORMITORY.

One That Is Owned by the University of the South.

Dean Hoffman was noted for charitable impulses, which his large income allowed him to indulge in. Some years ago the dean invested heavily in land in a small southern town which was then enjoying a "boom" period. Among the dean's other investments was a beautiful little hotel, exquisitely appointed and perfect in every detail. After awhile the "boom" fell through, and the little hotel became a losing investment.

At this time the chancellor of the University of the South, an old friend of Dean Hoffman, was on a hunting trip with him in the mountains of North Carolina.

"We are having in need of a dormitory down at Suwanee," said the chancellor.

"Yes," said Hoffman and sat thinking for a moment. "Well, you can have the hotel building down at B—," naming the town. "You can take it to pieces and move it to Suwanee. It ought to make a pretty little dormitory."

The chancellor was greatly pleased and made all the arrangements to move the hotel, when, to his astonishment, the citizens of the town obtained an injunction against its removal on the grounds that the hotel in a way was public property and that to remove it would leave the town without any hotel accommodations. A local fight followed, but the university won out in the end. So the University of the South revels in the luxury of the most unique dormitory in the world.—New York Times.

GEN. M'MAKEN

COMMANDER OF BRIGADE IS NOW
AT CAMP GROUND

Several Details Arriving—Hospital
Tents Are Placed—Phone In—
Y. M. C. A. at Camp.

General McMaken, of Toledo, commanding the First Brigade of the Ohio National Guard, arrived at Camp McKinley, Wednesday evening and was on the grounds early this morning supervising the placing of the tents of the brigade headquarters.

Major Weaver of Dayton, surgeon of the brigade, arrived in camp this morning and made a sanitary inspection of the camp, and decided to pitch the hospital tents for the entire brigade in the south end of the grove. There they will be away from the noise of the camp and in a cool and shady place.

Two car loads of provisions for the use of the commissary department, were unloaded and taken to the ground this morning under the supervision of Major Runkel, the brigade commissary.

The new pump, manufactured by the Weinman Machine Company, of Columbus, for forcing the water through the pipe lines was turned on this morning and proves that the work done by the engineering corps under Engineer Benjamin Priest was correctly performed and that everything is in excellent working order for the use of the brigade when it arrives Sunday. The new pump has a capacity of 5,600 gallons per hour and pumps the water in a cold stream with a pressure of 50 pounds to the inch, all over the grounds.

The new well is 58 feet deep and is four inches in diameter and with the well put down last year, will without any trouble furnish all the water necessary for the entire brigade which will consist of about 3,500 men. The work of laying the pipes and putting in the pumping station was performed by Jos. McMaken, Glenn Weinman and Jess Priest of Columbus, under the supervision of Chief Engineer Benjamin Priest of the State House.

Two of the details one from the Sixth regiment of Toledo, and the other from the Second Regiment, of Lima, will arrive over the T. & O. C. railroad this evening at 5:22 o'clock. This detail will consist of at least 90 men. The details from the other regiments, the First, and Third, and the Ninth battalion will come into camp Friday morning at 9 o'clock.

The sutler's tent for the brigade will be located just west of the post flag staff and will consist of two large tents, one 35x56 ft. and the other 16x24 feet. This part of the camp will be under the able management of Messrs. S. H. Brick and C. H. Lieurance, both of Kenton, Ohio, who have had a great deal of experience in this line. Mr. Brick is an old member of the National Guard, having been gunner of the Second regiment for 16 years. Mr. Lieurance is a well known business man of Kenton and is an enthusiastic member of the renowned Kenton gun club.

This morning the Newark Telephone company installed one of their new phones in the commissary department and now the camp is in direct communication with all parts of the state.

Captain Benj. Vail, quartermaster of the Sixth infantry of Toledo, arrived in camp today in company with several men from that regiment and they will assist in arranging for the camp quarters.

Sergeant Carmen of Company L of the Sixth, was taken suddenly sick this morning while at work, but he was relieved by Acting Surgeon Capt. Vail, who attended the man in the absence of any surgeon.

The local Y. M. C. A. in co-operation with the State Executive committee of the Young Men's Christian Association of Ohio, will open a Y. M. C. A. tent at the camp grounds during the encampment of the National Guard here next week. A large tent has been ordered and will be put up in a few days. It will be equipped with reading and correspondence tables, books, papers, magazines, and stationery. Through the kindness of Mr. Rawlings, an upright piano will be added to the equipment and an effort is now being made to provide informal programs of music and entertainment each evening.

Mr. Charles T. Rea of Canton, will be camp secretary and he with the assistance of the local committee will endeavor to make the Y. M. C. A. tent the most popular and at the same time the most helpful place in the camp.

FLASH OF LIGHTNING

Enabled Engineer Dayton to Catch a Glimpse of House as It
Was Splintered From Top to Bottom—Timbers
Flying in Every Direction.

Passengers coming into Newark from the north last night report one of the heaviest rain and electrical storms in the vicinity of Shelby, on the Lake Erie division that they have ever witnessed. They say that the storm was nearly as severe as the one of last Thursday and for a time threatened to do as much damage. The storm was most awe inspiring. Engineer Dayton says that just as he was pulling into Shelby the loudest and most frightful peal of thunder he ever heard in all his experience crashed over him, accompanied by a vivid flash of lightning and the shivering of timbers. He said he turned around just in time to catch a glimpse through the driving rain of the top of a dwelling house being splintered and shingles of the roof flying in every direction.

BOY BADLY SCALDED

Said to Have Obtained Relief Through the Power of a Hypnotist—Boiling Water Injures Harry P. Kutz' Little Son at Home on Front Street.

George, the little seven year old son of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Kutz, residing on the corner of North Fourth street and Oak avenue, in the North End, was badly scalded at his home on Wednesday evening. The little fellow was sitting on the steps of the back porch when Mr. Kutz picked up a basin of boiling water that was standing on the stove and started out of the door with it. In going out of the door he tripped on the sill and pitched forward, the contents of the basin pouring over his little son, of whose presence Mr. Kutz was unaware.

The little fellow was picked up and carried into the house and Dr. Palmer was summoned, who, upon making an examination, found that the boy had been severely scalded on his entire right side, the skin being peeled up in great blisters. The little one suffered great agony and about this time some one had sent for Dr. Harris, a specialist, who it is said, possesses remarkable hypnotic power.

Mr. Kutz said that it was wonderful the influence he soon had over his son who immediately became quiet and comfortable under his ministrations.

When an Advocate reporter visited the Kutz residence this morning the victim of the accident was resting comfortably, and it is thought that he will quickly recover from his injuries.

HUSBAND

The Latest Prize Drawn by the Telephone Girl Who Was Lucky in the Lawton Lottery.

Wichita, Kan., July 10.—The engagement of Miss Mattie Beal and Charles W. Payne, of Lawton, Oklahoma, has been announced, and the wedding will take place in this city next Wednesday. Miss Beal is the lucky telephone girl who drew Claim No. 2 in the Lawton land district, in the Government drawing at El Reno last year. She selected a claim adjoining Lawton, and it is now estimated to be worth $35,000. At that time she had, she estimates, 600 offers of marriage from all over the United States. Mr. Payne is a clerk in a lumber yard at Lawton and is said to have a good business future. There was nothing romantic about their love making, her friends say.

Miss Beal is a brunette, 25 years of age, born at Walnut Grove, Mo., and is quite attractive in appearance. She has made application to the General Land Office to give her patent to the land upon the payment of $1,600. By waiting until October she would have to pay only $600.

ODD FELLOWS

Select Cambridge, Ohio, for Their Next Annual Encampment—Meeting at Dayton Ends.

Dayton, O., July 10.—The sixty-third annual Grand Encampment of the Odd Fellows of Ohio came to a close yesterday afternoon. A lively contest occurred over the selection of the next meeting place, and after a notable effort Cambridge landed the Encampment, and the next convention will be held there. Washington C. H. and Kenton made applications, and put forth vigorous fights. The installation of three newly elected trustees also took place, the incumbents being S. J. Moses of Cincinnati; J. B. Sheridan of Piqua, and W. K. Hart of Mt. Vernon.

During the ceremony Grand Patriarch A. R. Stocker, who retired from office, was presented with a Grand Past Patriarch jewel, a token of appreciation for his work. Grand Sire A. C. Cable of Covington, delivered an interesting address.

Among those in attendance were two of the oldest members in the State—D. C. Hite of Lancaster, and W. S. Slater of the I. O. O. Home. Amendments to the constitution were approved.

ALARM FELT

OVER THE DISAPPEARANCE OF
"DOC" REINER.

Cook Has Not Been Seen Since Tuesday Morning and Friends Have Been Hunting.

Considerable apprehension has been caused by the mysterious disappearance of Silas E. Reiner, better known as "Doc" Reiner, who has not been seen nor heard of since Tuesday morning at an early hour. Reiner is well known about Newark, and is a cook in George Johnson's restaurant on West Main street. He rooms at his sister's, Mrs. John Meanors, 139 Valandigham street.

For some days prior to Tuesday, Reiner had been drinking rather excessively, but was not in a bad condition mentally from the amount of liquor he had drunk. He left the saloon in the morning, and all efforts of Messrs. Charles Slane, Lee Beatty and others to locate him have thus far proved futile, and alarm for his safety is keenly felt.

KING EDWARD'S AILMENT.

His Physician, Sir Frederick Treves, Wrote Interestingly of it.

What physicians regard as one of the most exhaustive essays written on the subject of perityphlitis is that of Sir Frederick Treves, published in Thomas Clifford Allbutt's "System of Medicine." Every phase of the malady is treated in that essay, and many of the typical cases cited bear remarkable similarity to that of King Edward, says the Detroit Free Press. The following are some extracts from that essay of interest to laymen:

Perityphlitis represents the very commonest variety of peritonitis, and the remarkable frequency of inflammation in this position is due to the fact that the appendix is one of the weakest points within the abdomen. Perityphlitis may be met in patients of all ages. Cases have been recorded in children respectively seven and thirteen months of age. On the other hand, the disease has been met with in patients of advanced age. The great proportion of cases occur in young adults, and the period of greatest frequency is between ten and twenty. The following table is compiled by Dr. Hawkins and Dr. Fritz, the total being 452 cases:

Age.	Proportion of cases.
5 to 10 years.....	10.8
10 to 20 years.....	40.4
20 to 30 years.....	22.9
30 to 40 years.....	11.2
40 to 50 years.....	4.6
Over 50 years.....	3.4

A large proportion of the subjects of perityphlitis, especially the subjects above the age of twenty, are chronic dyspeptics. They bolt their food or their meals are irregular or they hurry over their meals as they begin active work as soon as their repast is finished. Many of these people have a morbid appetite; many of them are aware that an attack is generally preceded by an attack of the dyspeptic symptoms. The holiday season is generally very productive of cases of perityphlitis. Certain of the pa-back of Hahn, Wednesday, and Brooklyn was shut out 2 to 6. Both Donovan and Hahn were in fine form but errors behind Donovan lost the game for Brooklyn.

Judge Wing of the United States circuit court, and a former resident of Newark has dismissed the proceedings brought by the Philadelphia National League club against Pitcher Bernhardt to compel him to play with the Philadelphia club or not at all. The court held that it had no jurisdiction in the case. The court then took up the cases of Lajoie and Flick and after a brief hearing dismissed them on the same grounds.

Sporting Notes.

The Philadelphia Athletics beat Boston Wednesday in a 17 inning pitchers' battle between Rube Waddell and Dineen by a score of 4 to 2 Boston's only runs were scored in the sixth, when Parent made a home run, sending a man home ahead of him. For the rest of the game Waddell had the Beaneaters at his mercy.

Sheppard of Brooklyn had a run in with a roofer at Cincinnati Wednesday, who reminded him of his contract jumping feats last spring. No one was hurt.

"Studie" Collins, captain of the Ohio State University ball team died at Columbus Wednesday night, as a result of a carbuncle on his hip. He was a law student.

Patients are nervous persons, who seem to be victims of a kind of nervous dyspepsia. In the second place, the history of an indigestible meal is comparatively frequent in the account of events which immediately precede the actual attack.

The general features of an attack are sudden severe abdominal pains.

High Temperature.

Tommy had had pneumonia, so had been for some time in hospital, where they treated him so well that he was much averse to the prospect of being discharged as "cured."

One day the doctor in charge was taking his temperature, and while Tommy had the thermometer in his mouth the doctor moved on and happened to turn his back. Tommy saw his chance. He pulled the thermometer out of his mouth and popped it into a cup of hot tea, replacing it at the first sign of the medico turning.

When that worthy examined the thermometer, he looked first at Tommy, then back to the thermometer and gasped: "Well, my man, you're not dead, but you ought to be!"—London Chronicle.

Nature His Bored Man.

"How's times?" asked the tourist. "Pretty tolerable, stranger," responded the old man who was sitting on a stump. "I had some trees cut down, but the cyclone leveled them and saved me the trouble."

"That was good." "Yes, and then the lightning set fire to the brush pile and saved me the trouble of burning it."

"Remarkable! But what are you doing now?" "Waiting for an earthquake to come along and shake the potatoes out of the ground!"—Chicago News.

Darned Stockings.

Tender feet are often made so by the use of much darned stockings. Wear light woolen stockings, and let them be of the cheap kind, that you will not mind discarding directly they become worn. To harden the skin it is a good plan to rub the soles of the feet with nitrated spirits every day or to wash them over with salt water.

FIND TWO OTHER PATIENTS.

PEOPLE OF THE DAY

A Deserved Recognition.

The nomination of Captain Charles E. Clark to be rear admiral, which was sent to the senate by President Roosevelt on June 10, met with general approval not only in official circles, but throughout the country. There was a very general feeling that Captain

CHARLES E. CLARK, U. S. N.

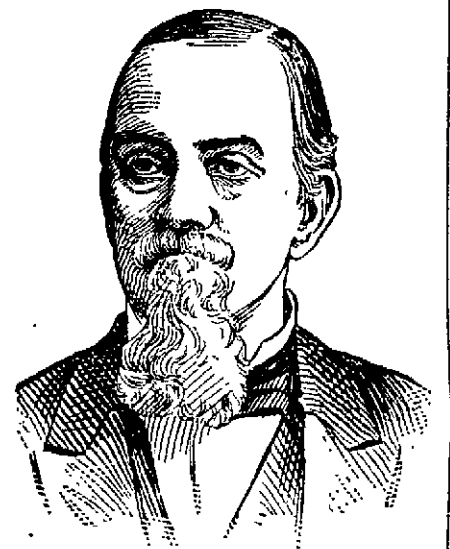

Clark had not been properly rewarded for his remarkable and plucky work in bringing the Oregon from San Francisco at a time when it was believed that Cervera's fleet was cruising in the waters of the south Atlantic and in the track which the Oregon would follow. After the war Captain Clark was given slight recognition in the way of advancement of a few numbers in his grade, but there has been a feeling that his reward was not sufficient.

Charles Edgar Clark was born in Vermont in August, 1843, and was appointed to the Naval academy in September, 1860.

Strong in Old Age.

Senator Pettus of Alabama, though the oldest man in the United States senate, is always alert when any matter in which he is interested is under consideration and as active as a youth of twenty when drawn into the discussions, though he has passed his eighty-first birthday. The following little incident proves the truth of this statement:

When Senator Spooner was making his Philippine speech, Senator Pettus sat steadily writing at his desk for more than an hour, but at the same time apparently listening to what Senator Spooner was saying.

SENATOR PETTUS.

"What's he writing?" asked Senator Millard of Senator Scott.

"Don't know," replied Scott, "but it seems too long for a letter."

The curiosity of all hands was satisfied soon after, for Mr. Pettus arose, took up the manuscript and read from it. He had been writing an answer to Senator Spooner while listening to him.

Mr. Schwab and the Reporter.

At a recent dinner Charles M. Schwab in talking about interviews told how he got even with at least one newspaper man for the stories the newspapers told about the steel king's gnawing experiences at Monte Carlo last summer. The reporter was sent a long distance to find Mr. Schwab and happened to find him in his New York office, apparently at leisure, smoking a cigar.

"I will give you the interview," said Mr. Schwab, "but I must exact one condition, which I will mention later on. Will you agree to it?"

"Certainly," said the reporter, setting out his notebook; "any wish of yours about the interview shall be respected to the utmost."

Thereupon Mr. Schwab opened his heart and his lips. The reporter took copious notes. When all was over, the steel magnate said: "Oh, yes; and now about that condition. You have promised to fulfill it."

"It shall be done," said the reporter. "What is your stipulation?" "Simply this," replied Mr. Schwab, rising and moving toward the door—"I will not permit you to publish one word that I have said."

Moody's Fish Story.

Dangling from his watch chain and skillfully mounted in gold Jim Moody of North Carolina has a unique charm. It is a black, oval shaped stone, smoothly polished.

This charm came to Mr. Moody in a mysterious manner. One of his constituents, Mr. H. C. Jones, once went fishing in the Ft. Clinch river for black bass. He got a whopping big fish, in whose stomach he found this smoothly polished stone.

"The supposition," says Mr. Moody, "is that the bass took this stone for a big bug and snapped at it. The stone remained in his stomach the remainder of his days, till my friend Jones caught him in the French Broad river."

The Itchwood Tree.

The most dangerous vegetable irritant poison is that of the Itchwood tree of the Fiji Islands. One drop of the sap falling on the hand is as painful as a touch of a hot iron.

THE BRITISH MEDICAL INSTITUTE

Has More Physicians on Its Staff More Capital Invested, and Effects More Cures Than Any Other Medical Firm in This Country.

78,864 Cases Cured in 5 Years.

A Branch of This Institute is Located in Newark at 100 W. Main St., Avalon Flats, Where Free Services Are Given For Three Months to All Invalids Who Call Before July 14th.

Over twenty years ago first eminent specialists of Great Britain and America united in order that they might utilize their combined skill in curing all chronic diseases. They named their association "The British Medical Institute." It is now incorporated under the laws of the state of Michigan, with a paid up capital of $60,000. A branch office being located in Newark, at 100 W. Main street, Avalon Flats.

These eminent specialists held daily consultations for several years. Naturally each acquired much knowledge during his long experience that is not recorded in the text books. Thus each reaped the benefit of the experience of the other thirty-nine; any new discovery of value made by one of its doctors was and is immediately communicated to the others; this is why the doctors of the British Medical Institute have no peers in the successful treatment of chronic diseases; each patient practically secures the combined services of forty eminent specialists.

Male and female weakness, catarrh and catarrhal deafness, all diseases, goitre, cancer and all diseases of the rectum are positively cured by their new treatment.

During the past five years it has treated and cured 78,864 persons.

At the Newark branch, located at 100 W. Main street, Avalon Flats, it has given free services (medicines excepted) to all invalids who called during the past six months, and it will continue giving free services for the next three months to all who call before July 14th.

The chief associate surgeon is in personal charge of the Newark office. Hours 9 to 8; Sundays 10 to 1.

DEAFNESS CURED.

Editor Advocate, Newark, O., March 19, 1902.

The treatment given by the British Medical Institute is curing my deafness. I can now hear a watch tick ten inches away. When I started I could not hear the watch close to my ears. My throat and stomach trouble is also improved. Hoping your institute will prosper, I am, Sincerely yours, JOHN R. GRAY.

Proved to be Mrs. Jones' Brother, Whom She Hadn't Seen for 33 Years.

Muncie, Ind., July 10.—The happiest woman in Muncie today is Mrs. David Jones, wife of the head engineer of the Midland Steel Works. Yesterday afternoon a stranger knocked at her door.

"Another tramp," she remarked to her daughter. The man proved to be her brother, David Norris, whom she had lost all trace of 33 years ago in Glamorganshire, South Wales.

Mrs. Jones left her home in South Wales when a girl and came to America with friends. Having never heard from her mother and brother, she supposed them dead long ago. The mother is still alive in South Wales. Norris came to America 15 years ago and is now a prominent citizen of Canon City, Colo.
